The musical score is for a piano piece in D major (two sharps). It consists of three systems of staves. The first system (measures 64-65) features a complex rhythmic pattern in the right hand with eighth and sixteenth notes, and a bass line with a triplet of eighth notes. The second system (measures 66-67) continues the right-hand melody with various rests and eighth notes, while the left hand provides harmonic support with chords and moving lines. The third system (measures 68-71) shows a more active right hand with eighth-note runs and a steady bass line. Dynamic markings like mf and f are present. Above the staves, a series of notes with equals signs and numbers (e.g., ♪ = 151, ♪ = 142) indicate specific rhythmic values or fingerings for certain notes.

The musical score is written for piano in G major (one sharp). It consists of three systems of staves. The first system (measures 199-200) shows a right-hand melody with a fermata and a left-hand accompaniment. The second system (measures 201-202) features a more complex texture with multiple voices in both hands, including sixteenth-note passages and sustained chords. The tempo markings are placed above the notes, indicating changes in the speed of the music throughout the piece.
